Primary Purpose

Provide drug and alcohol recovery services for non-violent offenders. This is the last step before entering into the penal system. DARP has the capacity to assist both male and felmale clients and served a total 286 clients during this period. Over the last 10 years this program has been so successful and changed so many lives that there are two other programs that have been blueprinted from this one. DARP has saved taxpayers millions of dollars in incarceration costs during this period.
